

Make undergraduate research count . . . For FREE!!

Students, would you like research to appear on your official USF transcript?
Professors, will you help us track participants in undergraduate research?

All Undergraduate Research assistants can register for 0 credits of IDH 4910, Honors Undergraduate Research
FOR FREE.

You do NOT have to be an Honors College student to participate.

How to sign up:

1. The student needs to create a profile on www.ur.usf.edu by clicking “MyURLogin” at the bottom right corner, including his or her mentor’s name.
2. The mentor should then email us at ur@ur.usf.edu granting permission. The email needs to include “4910,” the student’s full name, and the student’s U-number in the subject field.
3. Once we receive the email and verify the student has created a completed profile, the student will be registered for the class.
