BSC 1020- THE BIOLOGY OF HUMANS

3 credit hours

This non-science major’s course deals with the principles and applications of human biology.

Topics include:

- Reproductive biology
- Biotechnology and cloning
- Respiration
- Cancer
- Inheritance
- Endocrinology
- Basic nutrition
- Neurophysiology
- Scientific literacy
- Cell structure and function
- Anatomy and physiology
- Genetics
- Infectious diseases
- Biotechnology
- Molecular genetics
- Infectious disease

- Satisfies ONE of the general education requirements for Natural Sciences.
- Satisfies the state-mandated requirement for a “BSC” general education course for Psychology majors.